

An Interfaith Gathering

at the Labyrinth, Hutt Hospital grounds

Sunday 26 September, 2010

1.30 pm

(wet or dry - please gather at the Chapel)

People of faith are invited to experience
the labyrinth meditative walkway at Hutt Hospital

The Labyrinth is a symbol of unity and wholeness - and a metaphor for our journey through life. Various labyrinth patterns have been used by people from different faiths and cultures down through the centuries - as a pathway to stillness, insight and a deeper relationship with God. It can be appreciated by people of all faiths or none.

PROGRAMME

- 1.30 Assemble at Hutt Hospital chapel for introduction
- 2.00 Walking the labyrinth, followed by shared reflection
- 3.15 Afternoon tea at the chapel (koha appreciated)

(Please feel free to join us at any time.)

To estimate numbers, RSVP to Martin de Jong 568 6202 or email kesyoung@gmail.com

Organised by the Frederic & Margaret Wallis Labyrinth Committee and supported by the Wellington Inter-Faith Council